

York - Employment Seminar Programme 2017

As part of our service to clients and contacts alike we provide regular updates on legal developments which affect your business.

During 2017 Langley's' York Employment Unit will deliver a series of seminars; each focussing on a topical HR/employment law issue.

Programme: Breakfast Event (details TBC)

Date	Office	Topic	Description
16/02/2017	York	Legal update & a topic	This seminar will look at recent developments in employment law and forthcoming legislative changes. The seminar will also include an interactive workshop on a specific legal topic.
01/03/2017	York	Education Forum: The use of social media in the education setting	The Forum will be an opportunity for HR/professionals from Academies, Colleges and Schools of all kinds to network and discuss with other attendees the use of social media in the education setting. We will discuss how the use of social media can go wrong if improperly used by pupils, staff or parents and how to best protect your schools.
08/06/2017	York	Mock Employment Tribunal	In order to deliver a better understanding into exactly what happens at a Tribunal hearing we will work through a case study. We will replicate an authentic Tribunal experience; including legal submissions, evidence, cross examination – and of course the decision.
07/09/2017	York	Legal update & a topic	This seminar will look at recent developments in employment law and forthcoming legislative changes. The seminar will also include an interactive workshop on a specific legal topic.

Who should attend?

Managers, HR professionals and any other professionals who will need to be familiar with Employment issues and legislation. All the seminars are highly practical with case studies and tips.

CPD points

We offer CPD points for attendance at some of the events.
